BANKING EXECUTIVE JOINS FIRST NATIONAL BANK BOARD OF DIRECTORS

First National Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of Kenneth Marblestone to the bank's Board of Directors. The bank's continued turnaround success led the board to seek an additional director and specifically someone with seasoned banking knowledge and expertise. Commenting on Mr. Marblestone's appointment, Phil Utter, Chairman of the First National Board of Directors, said, "Ken brings a significant amount of senior-level financial services experience, proven commercial banking and lending expertise, along with a track record of high performance to our board room. His appointment further illustrates the Board's commitment to shareholders as well as the businesses and families we serve across Livingston County."

Mr. Marblestone is currently a managing director at Cascade Partners, an investment banking and private investment firm headquartered in Southfield, Mich. Prior to joining Cascade Partners, he was President of the Ohio and Michigan regions RBS Citizens / Charter One Bank. He previously held senior management positions with Bank One and held several leadership roles within the financial services sector in commercial lending and business development. Ken is an Albion College graduate and received his MBA from Michigan State. He and his family make their home in the greater Cleveland area where they are active in a host of community causes, projects and events.

On joining the First National Board, Mr. Marblestone commented, "I am excited about joining the First National Board and especially the opportunity to work with such a committed team. I am eager to begin working with the board and management team toward even greater success and am enthused about becoming part of such a respected institution."

“First National was fortunate to find someone of Ken’s caliber to fulfill this role and I know I can speak for our entire Board and Management Team when I say that we are confident Ken will play a key role in identifying and helping implement the financial service solutions that First National customers need and want. His proven experience and banking knowledge were something the board specifically sought in a new director,” said Ron Long, President/CEO of First National Bank.
