FIRST NATIONAL BANK ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

First National Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of Robert Clemente to the bank's Board of Directors. Mr. Clemente brings a wide array of additional business and professional experience to the board room. In addition to his work as an attorney with Hardy, Lewis and Page, P.C. in Birmingham, Michigan, he is the Managing Director of Behavioral Care Solutions, a provider of mental health services to long term care facilities and residents.

First National's continued turnaround success led to the board's decision to add a director. In announcing the appointment, Phil Utter, Chairman of the First National Board of Directors, said, "Bob brings a diverse and versatile business background to the board. His appointment is another example of the entire board's commitment to shareholders as well as the businesses and families we serve across Livingston County."

Mr. Clemente earned his Bachelors in Business Administration from the University of Michigan and became a Certified Public Accountant. He received his Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University and a Masters in Law, LLM from the New York University School of Law. Mr. Clemente and his family make their home in West Bloomfield, MI where he is active in charitable causes centered around geriatric mental health. On joining the First National Board, Mr. Clemente added, "I am excited about the opportunity to join the First National Board of Directors and eager to continue the work this board is committed to toward revitalizing such a respected institution – and the only bank headquartered in Livingston County."

Ron Long, President/CEO of First National Bank in commenting on the appointment said, "Mr. Clemente's rich and tenured professional experience will add to an already committed and seasoned group of directors who are focused on success. Bob will help all of us do an even better job in fulfilling our roles and I know I can speak for the Directors and management team by saying we are pleased to welcome Bob aboard."
